Headline:
Turning colder, with some snow overnight. Fine and frosty Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Damp, breezy conditions gradually giving way to some sleet and snow during the evening, mainly on hills. Becoming clearer and colder later in the night, with icy patches possible and with a widespread sharp frost developing, especially near snow cover. Minimum temperature -6 deg C (21 deg F).

Tuesday:
Fine and frosty, with a widespread hard frost and icy patches only very gradually thawing in the winter sunshine. Winds remaining light throughout. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday starting cold and crisp, but rain edging eastwards. This rain turning to snow, mainly on hills, before easing through Thursday. Friday then drier, with a risk of freezing fog.
